About TeenCentral.net: Your participation in this event will help TeenCentral.net to continue to provide a free, safe and confidential place for teens to turn to when they are facing a crisis or just trying to deal with issues that they face on a daily basis. When a teen comes to our site they are given complete anonymity and are able to post whatever they are dealing with without worrying anyone knowing who they are. Each story that is submitted by a teen is read, edited for appropriateness and responded to by a trained counselor. Teens can also read and reply to other teen's stories. Both a counselor and a master's level clinician review all correspondence on the site. This website allows KidsPeace to offer quality counseling to teens throughout the world that may not be able to get it any other way.
